

GRI Program Information

What is a GRI Designation?

GRI stands for Graduate REALTORS® Institute. Only members of the National Association of REALTORS® (NAR) are eligible to use the term REALTOR® and only REALTORS® can obtain the GRI designation. According to a NAR survey, REALTORS® who earn at least one designation earn $27,600 more than those with no designation. This program concentrates on the necessary skills to excel in the residential sales market.

The GRI designation is your for life! There is no continuing education/renewal requirement and there are no annual dues to in order to retain your designation.

How do I obtain the GRI designation?

You must complete all of the 6 GRI classes. Classes may be completed in any order. Each class is two days long with a test at the end of the second day. Students must receive a 70% on the exam to receive credit towards their GRI designation. Students may retake the exam if necessary. You have 5 years from the date of your first class to complete the designation. Once you finish all six classes, you pay a one-time $20 designation fee, and you will then receive the designation.

Do the GRI classes count toward my license renewal?

*How Could I Take Only 5 Classes Instead of 6?

By completing the new member orientation course for HOME, CBSHOME, Woods Bros., C21 Midlands, Kearney, RE/MAX Concepts, ERA Premier, REE-markable Real Estate Series, Lincoln First Realty or Rookie Training program through the Nebraska REALTORS® Association. Check with NRA's Chief Operating Officer for details.

What is the cost of the GRI program?

Each class costs $180 if you register during the early registration period, which is up to two weeks before each class. Once you earn your GRI designation, you can take any GRI class for half-price! Upon completion of the GRI program, there is a one time $15.00 designation fee. You will receive a certificate and a GRI pin.

Check with your broker for reimbursement. Many Nebraska brokerages reimburse up to half the early bird price for GRI classes!

What is the Board of Governors?

The Board of Governors is a standing committee of the Nebraska REALTORS® Association. The primary duty of this committee is to evaluate GRI course content, materials, and instructors. All members of this committee are GRI designees, appointed by the President of the Nebraska REALTORS® Association.

Who are the GRI Instructors?

The GRI Instructors have been selected by the GRI Board of Governors based on their experience and knowledge of the topics they are teaching. Only top-rated national instructors teach for Nebraska's GRI program.

How do I register for a GRI class?
