

AHLVERS HONORED AS REALTOR® OF THE YEAR

Jerry Ahlvers, CRS, with CBSHOME Real Estate in Omaha, Nebraska was honored as the 2010 Nebraska REALTOR® of the Year during the Nebraska REALTORS® Association Convention and Exhibition, April 12-14. The Nebraska REALTOR® of the Year is the highest honor awarded by the Nebraska REALTORS® Association, and is given to a member who exemplifies service not only to the association, but to the community and the real estate industry at large.

Ahlvers has served on various committees at the state level for the Nebraska REALTORS® Association including previously serving on the Statewide Professional Standard, MLS Governance, Board President/President-Elect, Senator Contact Team, Nominating Committee, Strategic Planning Committee and is a former State Association President. Currently, he serves on Governmental Affairs and Past Presidents' Committees for the State Association.

At the local level, Ahlvers previously served as President and Vice President, and served on the Governmental Affairs Committee, Nominating, Issues Mobilization, Forms, Equal Opportunity, MLS Board of Directors, Forms Task Force, Education Forum and Board of Directors. Jerry is also a former REALTOR® of the Year for the Omaha Area Board of REALTORS®. At the national level, Jerry previously served as a NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® Director and was the 2007 Region 8 Vice President.

Jerry is from Wayne, Nebraska and currently resides in Omaha, Nebraska with his wife Hedy. Also living in Omaha are their two daughters Raquel and Jamie, their son Chad and two grandchildren.

Since 1917, the Nebraska REALTORS® Association has served as The Voice for Real Estate in Nebraska™. Our 4,000 plus members subscribe to the REALTOR® Code of Ethics and take pride in the communities in which we work, serve and live.
