

2019 Political Action Days

Approximately 130 REALTORS® from across the state took part in our annual Political Action Days meetings and social events in Lincoln at The Graduate. The purpose of Political Action Days is to give members an opportunity to engage in the political process, hear from elected leaders and take positions on legislative bills.

Political Action Days opened with a Bill Review Session on Saturday, January 26, open to all Governmental Affairs Committee members to review every bill introduced this session that pertains to real estate and to decide which bills will be discussed further during the Governmental Affairs Committee meeting. Leadership Team Training, a training for local board leadership, state leadership and committee leadership was held on Monday, January 28. Monday evening, NRA RPAC Major Investors attended a social hour followed by dinner at the Jasmine Room with special guests Governor Pete Ricketts, Senators John Arch, Ben Hansen, Megan Hunt, Andrew La Grone and Julie Slama. Members also heard from John Sebree, Missouri Association of REALTORS® CEO. Thank you to Radcliffe & Associates for sponsoring the beverages.

On Tuesday, January 29, the RPAC Trustees, Executive Committee, Home Buyer's Assistance Foundation, and Federal Political Coordinators held meetings. In the afternoon we had the REALTOR® party training, General Session and Board of Director's Meeting.

Wednesday, January 30, was Capitol Day. Attendees started with the bill briefing breakfast before heading to the Capitol. Members heard from State Senators, visited their Senators office and toured the Capitol. Attendees also had the privilege of having lunch at the Governor's residence. Members who attended all of Capitol Day received 3 hours of broker-approved training.

You can find a list of the REALTOR® priority bills on the Association website.

A big THANK YOU to everyone who participated this year!
